

Technical Services

Extinguisher Recycling Services

Grundon Waste Management offer a collection, transport and disposal service for all redundant fire extinguishers. Empty, discharged units are 100% recycled through the Ewelme Transfer Station. After initial checks are made on the extinguishers they are dismantled and the sections bulked for recycling.

All components, such as steel cylinder bodies, brass valves and metal inner pipes are recycled using local approved metal recyclers.

For more information and a competitive quote please call our Technical Department on 01491 834340

or e-mail: technical@grundon.com

www.grundon.com